LONDON, Oct. 14.—Newspapers today published first dispatches from their correspondents with the British forces in France, and speculated at length on Germany's probable next move.

By C. R. BLACKBURN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Public observers predicted today that a scarcely veiled suggestion by Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh that the United States should interfere with Canada's allegiance to the crown might arouse such resentment as to weaken senate opposition to repeal of the embargo on American arms sales to belligerents.

Lindbergh's broadcast address, which also urged a ban on sales of offensive weapons to warring nations, was the subject of widespread comment as the senate met in afternoon session.

JUDGMENT OF THREE HOOTINGS AGAINST HITLER

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The Ottoman-British chief of an African Gold Coast tribe, has pronounced a judgment of "three hootings" against Adolf Hitler.

A ministry communication stated: "After the Ottomans had stated the case of Great Britain and Germany all the linguistic row up and went into consultation and on their return the chief linguist gave judgment—three hootings for the king and three hootings against Hitler whose case was bad."

German Arms Activity Waits On Italy, Russia

Western Front Expected To Remain Quiet Until Conferences Are Held With Aggression Partners

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—The lull in German military activity on the western front is expected here to continue at least until Italy and Russia have spoken.

German conversations with these countries were said already to be under way. Only a few high-ranking Nazis, however, can predict Adolf Hitler's next step now that Prime Minister Chamberlain has rejected his terms for ending the war.

Informed German quarters said that nothing more may be expected from France or Great Britain, but they expressed belief the door still is open for a neutralization pact to act as an intermediary.

The only official comment on the progress of hostilities in the west was a communiqué reporting that three enemy planes had been shot down in France. The supreme army command also noted "minor artillery activity."

In the east, the communiqué said, German occupation of the Nazi "sphere of influence" in Poland was completed as troops took over "the last sectors at the Bug river."

U-Boat Sinks British Battleship

29,150-Ton Warship
Royal Oak Carried
More Than 1,000 Men

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The admiralty announced this afternoon that approximately 370 men thus far had been saved from the sunken battleship Royal Oak.

The warship's complement, it said, was approximately 1,200 men.

By FRED BACKHOUSE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The admiralty announced today that Great Britain's 29,150-ton battleship Royal Oak had been sunk, presumably by a German U-boat.

The Royal Oak, a battleship of the Royal Sovereign class, carried more than 1,000 men. The admiralty said it was not known immediately how many had been saved, but the list of survivors would be issued as soon as possible.

The huge warship, which took part in the historic battle of Jutland in the first Great War, was built in the early years of that conflict at a cost of £2,488,269.

The announcement of Britain's second big loss of the war came just a few hours after the admiralty proudly told how British guns had sent three German submarines to the bottom of the sea. The first major British loss was the large aircraft-carrier Courageous, which was sunk with a loss of nearly half her crew.

According to naval reference books the Royal Oak was built in Devonport in 1914 and was completed in 1916. Her wartime complement was 2,149 men.

RECOMMENDATION
The August 1928 naval list showed that the Royal Oak was commanded by Captain W. G. Benn, R.N., with four officers and 200 crew.

39 SURVIVORS FRENCH TANKER REPORTED SAFE

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The American freighter Blackhawk reported today it had rescued 39 survivors of the French tanker Enlie, destroyed by fire off the Irish coast Thursday. One was reported dead.

The Enlie, a 1,000-ton tanker, was the Black Diamond Line's largest vessel in the current war. It was carrying 100,000 barrels of gasoline and 100,000 barrels of crude oil.

The tanker was bound for Havre, France.

The British Harding rescued the crew of 36 of the Enlie's French crew members while reporting to the British command.

Finland Prepares Defences

While Finland's delegate, Juhana Paasikivi, negotiates with Soviet leaders in Moscow, the little northern republic is preparing to resist any invasion by Red troops which are massed on the Finnish border. Well-armed, well-trained, Finnish volunteers, led by the men who led the fighting for Finland in the first Great War, are preparing for the worst.

Expected invasion, citizens have been ordered to evacuate Helsinki and Viipuri, the capital and leading city of the country. A report is shown on guard at the entrance to Viipuri, lower right. Thousands of Finns, making up the Aland Islands, top right, command a strategic position in the Baltic and it is expected that Moscow will demand concessions affecting them. Sweden and Norway are reported to be backing Finland in refusing to give any Aland Islands concessions to the Soviet.

Russia Must Control Aaland Isles To Make Herself Impregnable

By CHARLES S. FOLTZ, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERNE, Oct. 14.—Diplomatic sources expressed doubt today that Soviet Russia could make herself impregnable in the Baltic without control of the Aaland Islands.

This belief was shared both by foreign legations in Berne and by the League of Nations, which, theoretically, still has the right of seeing that the Finnish-owned islands, the so-called "Gibraltar of the Baltic," remain unaffected.

The Aaland, which flank the Gulf of Finland and the route to and from Leningrad, are located in League circles to be the main bone of contention between Russia and Finland.

The Aaland were united with Finland under czarist Russia, but when the Finns declared their independence in 1917 the islanders declared their right of self-determination and in unofficial plebiscites.

FIRST CANUCK TROOPS LAND 25 YEARS AGO

Italy May Keep Aloof From All Help To Hitler

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK
Associated Press Staff Writer
ROME, Oct. 14.—Government circles here indicated Italy would keep aloof from any effort by Adolf Hitler to obtain Italian aid for extending the war now that peace hopes are dim.

Without committing the government to any definite position in advance of diplomatic consultations expected to follow Prime Minister Chamberlain's rejection of Hitler's peace plan, authoritative Fascist news agency said the attitude remained that of making no move—either militarily or for peace.

If a peace move with a definite basis that appeared to have possibilities for success were advanced, however, the opinion was widespread that Italy would participate.

The German government was expected to consult separately with Italy and demand that Italy's assistance with consultative parts, but Italian and there would be no Italian participation in the conference, much as there was no such agreement between Rome and Moscow.

The Fascist press echoed Great Britain and France for not having Italy's war on Italy because of her Baltic expansion.

"France and England do not involve Italy in their war with the Soviet republic," said Regime Fascist, "because they hope one fine day they will return to its old law for democratic channels and present a large part of it to Germany."

First Canuck Division To Sail Shortly

Will Proceed To England
For Final Training Ottawa
Announces

By FRANK FLAHERTY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA, Oct. 14.—Canada's first overseas division will probably sail for England within the next two months to complete its training there and receive service equipment.

The division, which is the first Great War, the probability is the division of about 10,000 men will sail for England within the next two months to complete its training there and receive service equipment.

Lack of facilities for training a large body of troops in Canada under winter conditions make the final training of the division in Canada impracticable. Although there are a number of large military training grounds in Canada, none have sufficient all-weather buildings to house a division although they can accommodate a few thousand men.

Valley, Que., Pelawar, Niagara-on-the-Lake and Camp Borden in Ontario, and Duntac, Sask., would be suitable for summer training. Before sailing, the division is expected to see more of these camps will be made into a winter establishment but the lack of erecting huts, installing sewage disposal plants, etc., will be a serious situation.

British Lack In Grain Mart HITS DOMINION

Heads Of Wheat Pools In Ottawa In Effort To Ease Situation

LONDON, Oct. 14.—The British government has temporarily halted purchases of Canadian wheat pending a solution of exchange and shipping problems which are now being discussed between the governments of London and Ottawa, according to comment by a Canadian wheat board spokesman today.

OTTAWA, Oct. 14.—Almost total lack of British wheat buying in Canada since the war started, when Canada is holding a big carry-over from last year and a heavier 1939 crop is creating a serious situation.

Presidents of the three prairie wheat pools, the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, some prairie grain dealers and the Board of Grain Commissioners are holding a conference today to discuss the situation with the wheat committee of the cabinet, which will hold a long session Friday.

When the facts have been reviewed and the various proposals considered by the wheat committee, Mr. T. A. Cress, minister of national progress, will make a case for the Canadian wheat growers to place before the British cereal control authority when he goes to London within the next 10 days.

It is hoped here that some major adjustment in British buying policy will result from Mr. Cress's visit. At present British purchases are being curtailed.

United States "Amazed" At Hitler's Suggestion Roosevelt Intervene

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—In an editorial captioned "Germany's astounding proposal," the New York Sun Friday said the United States "could only feel amazed" at the suggestion in Germany that President Roosevelt intervene between Great Britain and Germany.

Following Prime Minister Chamberlain's speech Thursday rejecting the German terms, the Sun said that President Roosevelt, the "most genuine blood bath in the world" could be avoided only if Mr. Roosevelt prevailed on Mr. Chamberlain to most representative of the British at the conference table.

Even if Mr. Roosevelt had every right and desire to carry any such message to the prime minister, the Sun said, the United States would not be the best and quickest means of returning to Germany the kind of ultimatum to the kind of risk that empires of Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland have taken. The Sun said it is a little hard to picture Mr. Roosevelt in any such role.

Called "Invitation To A Super-Munch"

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The New York Herald-Tribune in its October 14 issue said that the United States in the suggestion of Dr. Otto Dietrich, German press chief, that President Roosevelt intervene between Great Britain and Germany, "is not only a 'super-munch' but a 'super-munch' to boot."

The paper headed its editorial, "Invitation to a super-munch," with the word "Invitation."

"There has been no more brilliant and no more ominous revelation of the paranoiac state of the Nazi mind than this," the Herald-Tribune said, "in the suggestion of a technique now familiar to all, this does nothing less than to invite the British to accept the role of a second Poland and to reduce the United States to the role of a second Britain."

"If the United States, warned by the results of the British course in Munich, should fail to initiate that example," the paper said, "the United States will then be the 'warrior' and solely responsible for the slaughter which the Nazi leaders ruthlessly threaten. Thus, demoted, however, to the role which Britain played in the Munich crisis, the United States will be similarly demoted as the victim of the succeeding attack."

RECALL APPEALS, WARNINGS

"Should the German government formally request our own government to convoke a peace conference, it would be the privilege of our government to call the attention of the German government to the successive offers of appeal and warning we have made, and given effect of aggression by that government," said the New York Herald-Tribune.

The paper added the United States government should "askers our tradition to call such appeals and to participate in it, as soon as the German government has made restitution for these acts of aggression and given appropriate guarantees of its intentions in future to respect its treaties."

PARIS, Oct. 14.—During the "Red Devils" squadron are winning them an enviable reputation among air units on the western front.

They're a good-looking lot who take their work calmly and with certain quiet cynicism.

One of them, describing how they were caught by a barrage of German anti-aircraft fire, puts it this way:

"We were snatched by bad salvo that found us at both altitude and we turned back toward our own lines in a zig-zag flight. The idea was to get them to fire in the air and we were in the air."

G.I.T.—Junior U.F.A.—High Schools—Y.M.C.A.—Stamp Club—Junior Authors

THIS IS THE WAY

In order to more fully meet the growing importance of young people's activities in Edmonton and throughout Northern Alberta, the editor of The Bulletin's Young People's page will reserve this column for editorial comment on what the youth are doing and will from time to time try and offer constructive suggestions and criticism on youth activities.

It is the sincere hope of the writer that readers will find this column not only interesting but of value. This is not only a Young People's page, but a page for Young People. It is published each Saturday in order to let the public know what they are doing and intend to do.

On this page you will find many articles written by boys and girls themselves. "Up to the Minute" is a feature written by high school students in the city while the Junior Authors' Club is devoted to original poems and stories written by Northern Alberta youngsters still in their teens. In other columns you will find articles on the activities of young people's groups and organizations. This is your guide to a successful youth life.

Every group organization and service club in the city interested in the development of boy work should give serious consideration to the suggestion brought forward last Thursday's meeting of the Edmonton Boys' Work Board by George Miller, provincial secretary of the Boys' Work Board of Alberta. George suggested that a move be made to make all organizations interested in boy work.

Members of the board who attended this meeting were unanimous in their approval of such a plan. Angling youth interested in the progress of their desire for some such plan. W. S. Bakeman, formerly provincial secretary of the Scout Association, and now on leave of absence due to war, was in favor of the proposal.

Herold "Hal" Bette, popular and hard-working boy work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., summed up the general feeling toward the suggestion in these words: "That would be the perfect thing to do. Let's work night and day to help put a plan like that across of youth leaders here will show that they are genuinely interested in such a plan."

All that remains is for the boys work leaders in the city to put their shoulders behind the wheel and move. The interest in the project is evident. There are many advantages that it would take this whole page to list. But the boys work leaders in the city are already working on it.

Gradually as the year proceeds more of our school clubs are being formed. About 80 enthusiastic students turned out for the first meeting of the Camera Club under the guidance of Mr. Brewster. They appointed William W. Smith as president and Roy Williams as vice-president.

The first Camera Club meeting was held Wednesday night when the members met at the home of Mr. Robinson, a Tech teacher. These pictures were taken at the "Kings Walk" Tech at Work and Play. A Trip to Rusty and The Great Going to Town.

The first meeting of the Christian Fellowship Club was held on Thursday night and officers were chosen to serve through the year. At the council meeting on Wednesday plans were laid for the future which will probably bring the first week in November.

Edmonton Students Carrying Pet Grudge Against Hitler

Northern Alberta students have a pet grudge against Hitler. No student in all parts of Alberta and the majority of other parts of Canada would disagree with this world. It is a grudge that they alone share. Hitler is causing them a lot of extra work and they are determined to make even the most mind-numbing class work a war.

As a result of the dramatic history-making developments in Europe, since Hitler's rise to power, mass meetings have been held in schools all over the world. These meetings are held in schools all over the world. These meetings are held in schools all over the world. These meetings are held in schools all over the world.

Many schools are using the up-to-date maps published in newspapers. Here is where the map is published. Here is where the map is published. Here is where the map is published. Here is where the map is published.

C.G.I.T. GROUP KNITTING FOR SOLDIER BOYS

One of the most energetic and progressive C.G.I.T. groups are the "Tixis" of Highlands United Church. Although Christmas is still many weeks away, the young ladies have already made a good start on the group project of sewing Christmas cards. They have secured a large number of orders and are knitting for more.

Present plans being laid for the whole group making up a whole party, to be followed by visits to the various schools and churches in order that the mystic element alone will be met with Halloween is not missing.

"Beware Of Those Peten Brothers" Is Wail Of Six -Day Bicycle Riders

Colorful Canadians Are Best Crowd Pleasers In Game

EVERY sport has its great names, its champions, its heroes. And these are the names that are synonymous with the sport wherever it is played or known. Baseball has its Babe Ruth and Ty Cobb; hockey has its Charlie Conacher, Cyclone Taylor and Chuck Gardner; football has the names of Red Grange, Knute Rockne and Ted Cuy. And in the game of six-day bicycle riding, the names of the Peden brothers are prominent.

Who are the Pedens? Well, they are a couple of personable young gentlemen who sprinkle sugar on their litters. But then, that's just by way of tipping you off to the fact that they are not only the most refreshing and colorful names in the game, but they are also the most successful.

When Reginald McNamara, the famous "Ironhorse" of the pie-pan, dismounted from his wheel for keeps, hunky Torchy Peden was found in the midst of a six-day race in the business. Since 1928 he has been flying around the world.

REMEMBERED HERE Edmontonians will remember big, red-headed Torchy Peden as the champion of the six-day race in the business. Since 1928 he has been flying around the world.

ALONG CAME DOUG Possessor of a marvelous physique, and at one time one of the fastest of the six-day race, Doug Peden was found in the midst of a six-day race in the business. Since 1928 he has been flying around the world.

STATHCONA By Ray Robinson Come on, come on, come on! This was the demand of the high school students as they gathered for the first game against the Varsity. The old players were certainly taken through some hair-raising experiences as Scotland fought Varsity for the first time.

WENT TO WORK Doug Peden was found in the midst of a six-day race in the business. Since 1928 he has been flying around the world.

And the Pedens proved by going out and winning the mighty German against Gustave Klimm and Heinz Vogel, who had challenged them to a six-day race. They were found in the midst of a six-day race in the business. Since 1928 he has been flying around the world.

With The Railroaders

On the National Line

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 14.—Page Mr. Ripley, Believe It or Not, Here's a grain handling story for the book. It occurred at Dauphin, Manitoba, where a heavy grain car being shipped from the district. And the odds against the incident were thirty-three million to one.

On August 29, four Canadian National Railway grain cars were loaded at Dauphin and routed to the Manitoba pool elevator. On Sept. 7, within 10 days, the same four cars were back under the spouts of the Dauphin elevator for a second load of grain. Records show C.N. cars numbered 80481, 80486, 80724 and 80713 took part in this amazing coincidence.

One of the statistical experts in the National car service department delved into figures and worked it out that the odds against such a quick repetition of the same four cars turning up at the same elevator within 10 days worked out at 33,000,000 to one, believe it or not.

Best that one if you can, Mr. Robert L. Ripley.

COCKPIT OF EUROPE: The Balkans Offer Oil and Wheat—And Routes for Soldiers and Ships

THE BALKANS

FOR centuries the Balkans have been the path of conquest—from Europe east and Asia west. They have seen the Greek, the Roman, and the Ottoman empires wax and wane. Wars from time immemorial have raged through them. Can the “cockpit of Europe” stay out of the new one?

With the discovery of oil in Rumania at the turn of the century, and the introduction of modern farming methods throughout the peninsula, the Balkans became more important than ever. Today, every great European nation is vitally concerned with what happens in them.

Germany wants their oil and wheat, and her leaders may be dreaming again of dominion from Berlin to Baghdad. Russia's primary interest is in the Dardanelles.

a warm-water route to the outside world. With their new boundaries, both the Nazis and the Communists stand at the Balkan gateway to the East. Will they agree to share it?

Britain has guaranteed to defend Greece, Rumania and Turkey, so the Balkans may yet offer a backdoor route for aid to eastern allies or a thrust at Germany from the rear.

As the map shows, the Balkans are vulnerable to attack from almost any direction. They are mountainous, but their small armies (figures here include trained reserves) can scarcely hope to defend the passes successfully. Fortifications are much weaker than those of western Europe. And the river valleys—especially those of the Morava, the Vardar, and the Danube—are natural corridors for invading armies.

Another Hitler Triumph

Hitler's threat of a "triumph of destruction" as the alternative to armistice gets grim illustration in the picture of a Polish boy seated hopelessly amid the bombed wreckage of what once was his home in Praga, a suburb of Warsaw. Julien Bryan, freelance photographer, who was the last cameraman to leave Warsaw said burned and wrecked homes such as these stretched for 20 blocks.

Latest "Black-Out" Modes

Milady of fashion in London this year is wearing cloth slacks with white gas mask, helmet and accoutrements, while the young man of fashion wears a white covering over his derby, a white outer vest and a white holder for his gas mask. ## DEMOCRATIC ARMY IS AIM FOR BRITAIN

Commanders Ordered To Seek Young Officers From the Ranks

By J. F. SANDERSON
CANADIAN PRESS Staff Writer
LONDON, Oct. 14.—The army has gone democratic under Leslie Hore-Bliss, British tradition-shattering secretary of state for war, who believed that "the title" should be used to enhance a peek and not to gain social advantages.

In this war British intends recruiting the great bulk of her officers from the ranks—which is like saying the House of Lords will be under democratic rule.

The War Office already has nailed up the doors of Woolwich and Sandhurst, the exclusive military schools.

A highly-placed officer said today: "This is going to be an army in which a good-headed young man can get on."

"We want leaders who are active minded," he said. "We are determined our high school boys will be commanded by young officers. We must have a new age down. In the last war some of our best battalion commanders were youngsters who had not unfortunately been to do have them until the end."

Commanding officers have been asked by the War Office to search the ranks for likely boys to attract who will be sent to a cadet battalion where they will be given several years training before graduating as officers.

YOUR CHILD'S EYES

Upon a child's eyesight largely depends the development of his mentality, personality, character.

Children who cannot see clearly, do not learn readily. They fall behind in their school-work not because their brain is less capable than their school-mates, but because their poor vision holds them back. Even though they work as hard as the others, they learn less.

Poor vision also tends to make a child shy and lacking in confidence. It breeds "moods," awkwardness, self-consciousness, and other faults that result in a handicapping inferiority complex.

Be sure that your child is not being handicapped by poor vision. Have her eyes examined this week. Clear, keen vision will make her happier, healthier, and in the future.

And Now --- Guns and Uniforms in Peaceful Baltic Countries

Watch On Moselle

Ready To Defend Finland's "Neutrality"

These Finnish bicycle troops, pictured in Helsinki, the capital, prepared for active service as Finland called up reserves for extraordinary service to strengthen its neutrality. Some were on the alert, with blackouts and increased border fortifications, as mighty Russia turned toward them in Soviet Baltic expansion.

Pacific Swedes Can Fight—If Necessary

Long aloof from Europe's battlefield, neutral Sweden takes defence measures as the shadow of Soviet expansion creeps to the shores of the Baltic Sea. Above, a landing party of Swedish infantrymen in a resistance attack near Rango. Sweden, increased its standing army from 60,000 to 100,000, built up 1,000 air raid shelters, conducted blackouts and aerial bombing practice along the Swedish-Finn border.

Guarded by sentries, two French soldiers are pictured as they scanned the opposite shore of the Moselle river, the French-German border on the western front. This picture was passed by the censors and radiated to the front.

Dump Diamond Mining

When Mrs. Robert Strassman of Toledo, O., went to a New York beauty parlor, she wore a $15,000 diamond ring. When she departed, the ring was gone, but she didn't miss it until next day. Meanwhile the contents of the manicure bowl in which she had left it had been thrown into a refuse can, which in turn had been collected by a garbage truck. Police caught the truck just as it was about to dump its load into a sea-going scow. They're pictured digging in the refuse. After two hours, they found the sparkler, shown in insert.

Poles Sample Cooking

Polish prisoners in a German internment camp line up for a meal, which apparently consist of a bowl of soup. The scene is "somewhere in Poland" according to Nazi censors who passed picture.

New Post

After only a year's service in Montreal as District Officer Commanding, Brigadier P. Lege Armstrong, O.B.E., has been appointed to the newly created post of deputy Adjutant-General at Montreal Defence Headquarters and is expected to take over his new duties about the middle of this month.

Flame Preceded the Sword

A village fire brigade "somewhere in Poland" is shown making a gallant but futile effort to fight a house on fire caused by German incendiary bombs dropped during an attack. Notice the "old-fashioned" equipment, the water being drawn from horse-drawn pumps. Each firehouse contains quantities of incendiary bombs.

Giant and Dwarf of French Tank Corps

This picture gives an excellent idea of the tremendous size of the French 52-ton tank which has done such damage on the western front where it is credited with having aided materially in the tank battle that ended with the French in command of strategic Burg fort. The "baby tank," weighing 15 tons, affords a good comparison. France is employing vast numbers of these machines in her slow but steady advance.

Doggy Fad

Not so pretty a pough but a safer one. Society for protection of animals has just canine gas masks like this on the Paris

'Where Is the Ark Royal?'

Following the world's first fight between aircraft and a battle fleet off the Scottish coast, Germany claimed their bombers downed a heavy cruiser and "destroyed" an aircraft carrier. British and "It's a lie," countered with claim that anti-aircraft guns had repulsed the attack, downed two Nazi planes. Then a Berlin broadcast faintly asked, "Where is the Ark Royal?"—hinting that the aircraft carrier (whose was the one they destroyed).

France—Outside the Maginot Line

These photographs show the huge guns being employed by France as the poles continue their steady advance into Germany, blasting at the Westwall fortifications. Top, a line of camouflaged guns. Bottom, railroad guns used for long-distance bombardment and useful in battering heavy emplacements.

How's The Weather In England? Sh-h-h! Saves His Pet

By MILTON BRONNER
Bulletin Foreign Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Londoners are in a fog about the weather. Neither by turning to their newspapers nor tuning in on the radio can they tell whether it is going to be a nice day today.

The publication and broadcasting of British weather reports are prohibited—for the duration of the war. The reason for stating that this news is vital to give it would be to furnish information and perhaps, very valuable information to the German service. To say nothing about the weather is to keep him guessing.

KEEP HIM GUESSING
IN BRITISH STRATEGY
British weather is "mysteriously" and "secretly" and "not to be mentioned" around London. German was "not to be mentioned" for what reports in England and France.

French and British weather give the authorities here a fair guess as to weather conditions in Germany. But the Germans will not know what the weather is like in France and Britain, unless they can get extensive wireless reports from ships in the Atlantic and from agents in Spain and Ireland.

If the Nazis were to plan an extensive bomber attack upon some section of Great Britain, it would be inevitable to them to know not only the weather conditions over the North Sea, but also over Britain itself. They might be planning a sneak attack through heavy low-lying clouds, only to find that by day Britain was enjoying sunshine and by night the light of the moon and stars. Or they might be planning a mass attack by many bombers, paying for close scrutiny, only to find Britain shrouded in clouds or the second hidden by a postcard fog.

Among the pettish sights attending the bombing of Warsaw by German planes was that of this little boy with his pet cat, the only thing he managed to save from the ruins of his home, in which 19 persons were killed. Photo was taken just before Nazi occupation of Warsaw.

Get your CAR ready for WINTER

Winter's Chilly Hand Holds Many Problems For Snowtime Drivers

And, in the case of those who intend to operate their automobiles during the winter months, there are many preparations to be made and now is the time to look into the question.

HEART CLOTS PREVENTED BY CANADIAN FIND

Discovery Of Heparin Is Reported By Dr. Best, Of Toronto

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 14.—Partial success in preventing coronary thrombosis, a fatal clotting of the heart's main artery and common cause of death, through use of a compound called heparin was reported Friday by Dr. Charles H. Best of Toronto, co-discoverer of insulin.

Dr. Best's paper dealing with his work was read at a meeting of scientists in connection with observance of the University of Minnesota's medical school's fifth anniversary.

While it will perhaps be almost impossible to obtain direct proof of the effects of heparin under these conditions, he said, the results have not been unfavorable. In Toronto and also in Stockholm, where studies have been proceeding, patients who have undergone operations, followed by a relatively high incidence of clotting have been aided by the application of heparin. "In many instances," he said, "the results have been so favorable that we can refrain from the conclusion that further thrombotic formation (clotting) has been prevented."

Dr. Best described heparin as an anti-coagulating agent, one of the best sources of which was beef lung.

9,000 OFFER SERVICES TO GOVERNMENT

OTTAWA, Oct. 14.—Nine thousand offers of service in Canada's war effort are being classified by the voluntary service registration bureau under Dr. E. H. Coleman, chairman, the Prime Minister's office said last night in a press release.

"Registrations range from an offer personally to destroy Hitler to the more practical proposal of a firm with large facilities, which is prepared to turn out work at once," the statement said.

One man offers his home page, one a Russian, hoping to get his Canadian citizenship papers at once, immediately, offers to instruct the enemy in skin, 13 entertainers seek to brighten the leisure hours of soldiers.

A youth is offered in any number of the government who may need one, a firm in Nova Scotia places its two banners, and volunteers at the government's disposal. Four employers offer to assist in the service of intelligence service officers in intercepting enemy messages.

Re-Treading Tires Saves Cash

Modern machines, located in Edmonton, have brought about a tremendous improvement in the re-treading of automobile tires. A check-up of the automotive system is the first step in the re-treading process. The machine then finds the wear on the tire, and the tread is re-treaded. The process is a simple one, and the tire is ready to use again. The re-treading process is a simple one, and the tire is ready to use again. ### Master Spy Of Imperial Germany Sides With Britain

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Captain Franz von Balthasar, master spy of Imperial Germany who directed German espionage in the United States at the start of the last war, was in court today for the first time since he was allowed unrestricted freedom in war-time Britain.

Von Balthasar had expected to become a British subject this fall and offered to Britain all his experience, energy and capabilities in the ensuing struggle for the defence of her liberties.

The decision of the court to allow von Balthasar to travel and picture freely was not immediately made known.
